

Walters and Kazha, Impossible

Impossible is that the only word I can read in your blue covered eyes this creepy world-impossible You , you are the one who turns me round the sun you make me feel like I'm new born king killing me gently with your perfect smile knowing that this is love just for a while And probably it mind be mine those beautiful and stupid dreams I've ever had before but probably it's stupid me
You , you are the one who turns me round the sun
you make me feel like I'm new born king
killing me gently with your perfect smile
knowing that this is love just for a while
You are the one x2
That turns me round the sun
You , you are the one who turns me round the sun
you make me feel like I'm new born king
killing me gently with your perfect smile
knowing that this is love just for a while
