

WAMI, Guardian Of Your Heart (feat. Piotr Cugowski)

When you came into my life
Gentle like a lonely wind
You were only passing by
Surrounded by mystery
You looked into the distance

Baby, I could see
Then you set your eyes on me
Sent the shivers down my spine
Now I found the place I want to be
The place is right here, by your side

O girl, I know I'll take my chances
Coz what I feel it's true
I feel like I'm drowning
In the Ocean of love
I got my hands tight up
But my heart will not surrender
Still need you darling
And I can't get enough
But if you feel the same
You can lay in my arms forever
So who will be the only Guardian Of Your Heart?

We were walking hand in hand
Soul to soul and heart to heart
Still addicted to your woman's grace
It's almost perfect from the start
You are all I've ever wanted
And everything I need

It feels like we're drowning
In the Ocean of love
We got our hands tight up
But our hearts will not surrender
I still need you darling
Don't let times get so rough
But if we stay together we can be like one

She's my lady
And she came from another world
She takes my breath away
But she stays with me today

I feel like we're drowning
In the Ocean of love
We got our hands tight up
But our hearts will not surrender
Still need each other
When times get too rough
But if you stay with me
You can lay in my arms forever
So who will be the only?
