

Wanda Jackson, Wanda Jackson

(Send me no roses what I need most is you)
Oh without fail everyday since you went away
The doorbell rings you're sending roses again
In my room all petals fall but darling that's not all
I read your card then tears began to fall
Send me no roses please no more roses
Roses are red I know but through my tears they look blue
Send me no roses please no more roses
Your roses can't hold me what I need most is you
Send me no roses...
