

Watashi-Wa, Courtyard

Tell me friend
Do you linger in your head
Can you taste it still like yesterdays
Those memories
They wash all over me
They make waves that cry out for all she's seen

All we want will come you see
And all we see will make us be

Leave it up to me
I know you're hungry baby
You can't see now
Leave it up to me
Just close your eyes I'll carry
We'll get there somehow

Tell me friend
Do you linger in your heart
Can you taste it still like yesterdays
Those memories
They wash all over me
They make waves that cry out for all she's seen

Well all we want will come this see
And all we see will make us be

Leave it up to me
I know you're hungry baby
You can't see now
Leave it up to me
Just close your eyes I'll carry
We'll get there somehow

Leave it up to me
I know you're hungry baby
You can't see now
Leave it up to me
Just close your eyes I'll carry
