Watermark, Incorruptible

Incorruptible, indescribable Salvation's calling When I was longing Now You're the strength that holds my life With a love that will never die And never fade like the flowers It is a love that stands forever!

Oh I am not redeemed by corruptible things Not by silver, not by gold And not by aimless tradition But by the blood of God's sacred Son Jesus Oh You alone are my living hope And my inheritance is Incorruptible

Incomparable, inconceivable Your plans for me Shall always be And for the day that You're revealed My heart is forever sealed With the promise of mercy And the hope of all Your glory!

Oh sacred Son Who paid the price Oh may I live a grateful life That magnifies Your name forever!
