

We Are The Fallen, I Will Stay

Tonight I'm without you,
The raindrops are falling,
With candle light burning,
For you, I'll be waiting.

If all of the days have no more light,
And all of our dreams are lost tonight,
The stars can all fall
And everything turns to grey,
I will stay.

Graceful and loving
Tearful and soothing
Can't breathe without you,
There's no life without you here.

If all of the days have no more light,
And all of our dreams are lost tonight,
The stars can all fall
And everything turns to grey,
I will stay.

Oh, oh, oh.
Oh, oh, oh.

If all of the days have no more light,
And all of our dreams are lost tonight,
The stars can all fall
And everything turns to grey,
I will stay.

If all of the days have no more light,
And all of our dreams are lost tonight,
The stars can all fall
And everything turns to grey,
I will stay.
