

Western Sizzlers, One More Beer

One more beer and I'll tell you that I love you
One more beer and I promise I'll be true
One more beer and I'll buy you a diamond
One more beer my dear, I swear, I'll marry you

Last night we were livin' in the movies
You looked like Cher
I favoured Steve McQueen
Then the sun came up and shed its light upon us
Spoilt the prettiest sight we'd ever seen

One more beer and I'll tell you that I love you
One more beer and I promise I'll be true
One more beer and I'll buy you a diamond
One more beer my dear, I swear, I'll marry you

Gimme one more beer and I'll tell you you're my only
Buy me one more beer I vow we'll never part
Pour me one more beer and I'll never make you lonely, darlin
I swear to God, I hope to die, cross my heart

One more beer and I'll tell you that I love you
One more beer and I promise I'll be true
One more beer and I'll buy you a diamond
One more beer my dear, I swear, I'll marry you
