

Wham!, Young Guns (Go For It)

Hey sucker
what the hell's got into you?
Hey sucker
now there's nothing you can do.

Oh
I hadn't seen your face around town a while -
So I greeted you - with a knowing smile - When I saw that girl upon your arm
I knew she'd won your heart - with her fatal charm.
I said: Soul boy
let's hit the town

I said: Hey boy - what's with the frown - But in return - all you could say was hi George meet my fiancée Young guns
having some fun
crazy ladies keep them on the run -

Wise guys realise there's danger in emotional ties.
Save me
single and free
no fears no tears what I want to be - One two take a look at you - death by matrimony.
Hey sucker
what the hell's got into you? . . .

A married man you're out of your head sleepless nights on an h.p. bed.
A daddy by the time your twenty one -
If you're happy with a nappy then you're in for fun.
But you're here and you're there But there's guys like you just everywhere.
Looking back on the good old days

Well
this young gun says 'caution pays'.
Young guns
having some fun
crazy ladies keep them on the run - . . .
I remember when we had such fun and everything was fine

I remember when we used to have a good time partners in crime

Tell me that's all in the past and I will gladly walk away Tell me that you're happy now turning my back nothing to say.
You can tell this jerk to take a hike

There's something 'bout that boy I don't like - Well sugar
he don't mean the things he said - Just get him out of my way 'cause I'm seeing red we've got plans to make We've got things to buy - and you're wasting time
On some creepy guy. - Hey shut up chick that's a friend of mine

Just wash your mouth babe
you're out of line.

Get back - hands up - go for it
get back□hands up - go for it

...
Young guns
having some fun
crazy ladies keep them on the run -
