

Whitney Houston, Celebrate (& Jordin Sparks)

[Whitney Houston:]

everybody's been so uptight and forgetting to live the life let all the problems get them down till they make you wanna shout, oh yeah!

[Jordin Sparks:]

see everybody's been down in luck now finally things are looking up the sun is chased all the rain away no more obstacles in our way, yeah.

it's time to celebrate (come on, yeah) come on and celebrate (that's what i want) i wanna celebrate (because it's so right) i celebrate you (i celebrate you, yeah) uh-hu

[Jordin Sparks:]

there is oh so many of us (that underestimate the power of love) so much hate going round and i've had enough i've invited you for the love.

[Whitney Houston:]

though we been going through changes just trying to make it from day to day tonight don't you worry about a thing just cash your cares away.

it's time to celebrate
(come on, yeah)
come on and celebrate (it is what i want)
i wanna celebrate
(it's time to celebrate)
i celebrate you, i celebrate you!!
it's time to celebrate (come on, come on)
come on and celebrate
(no matter what color you are)
i wanna celebrate
(tonight everyone is a star)
i celebrate you, i celebrate you, u-uh!!

i'm gonna give you a reason why you should clap your hands and jump for joy!
there's something we can believe in,
now that the rain is gone we're gonna dance in o a rainbow! oh-oh oh u-hu

it's time to celebrate
(come on, yeah)
come on and celebrate
(time to celebrate)
i wanna celebrate
(because it's so right)
i celebrate you
(i celebrate you)
celebrate me, celebrate me.

it's time to celebrate (time to bring you and me)
come on and celebrate
(no matter what color you are)

i wanna celebrate
(tonight everyone is a star)
i celebrate you, you celebrate me

it's time to celebrate
come on and celebrate
i wanna celebrate
i celebrate you, you celebrate me u-uh
