

Whodini, Big Mouth

A big mouth, a big mouth

Theres a rumor bein spread about me and the crew
About somethin we did or supposed to do
You might not have heard it or maybe you have
But when I first heard it all I did was laugh
I used to get angry and all uptight
But you could say what you want, just spell my name right
Cause all Im ever guilty of is rockin the house
But thats not what the rumor was all about
Now if youre like Yvette tell all your friends
And if you dont wait until you see me again
This way I could hear it from the horses mouth
And right then and there we could straighten it out
Because I dont get involved with he said, she said
So take my advice and quit while youre ahead
Because one day I might not laugh
The day your mouth writes the check your behind cant cash

You got a big mouth, a big mouth
You got a big mouth, a big mouth
A big mouth

People used to say that you had a big mouth
And now I understand what theyre talkin about
Because what we do is just between me and you
Not somethin that you run and tell your crew
But you had to tell Sharon and she told Carol
Then the story rode on just like a wheel barrel
Carol told Dee Dee and she told Pam
And Pam was overheard talkin to her man
Pam was told Cookie what she thought she heard
And somehow Eazy E had got the word
He told somebody I knew from uptown
And they called me up and put me down
Now the whole darn storys been changed around
And thats the reason why Im not with you now
Because you never shoulda opened your mouth at all
And I wouldnt have no reason to make this call

You got a big mouth, a big mouth
You got a big mouth, a big mouth
A big mouth

Now youre the Don Dapper of the neighborhood
And every time I see you youre up to no good
Youre just like a snake crawlin on the ground
Lookin for some new dirt to spread around
Then you stick out your tongue and start spreadin lies
And now somebody else has been victimized
You may stop for a while, then youre at it again
And you always got to have the last word in
They call your mouth Almighty, tongue Everlastin
You aint satisfied unless somethins happenin
You dont have to be there no more than a minute
But you always got to have your two cents in it
So to all you big mouths this jams for you
Somein else you could run and go tell your crew
Cause we made to be big so we could rock the house
But we also made it big enough to fit in your mouth

You got a big mouth, a big mouth
You got a big mouth, a big mouth
A big mouth

You got a big mouth, a big mouth
You got a big mouth, a big mouth
A big mouth
