

WHOM GODS DESTROY, In The Name Of War

Death, we celebrate
As if it was something we were born for
Death seems to be the faith
Crucify the forces, let them through the door
Gates of hell await
You spend your life just to dig another hole
Read these words unseen:
"God save the mean"

Tell me what you're seeing
Do you still believe in
In the name of war
We still die for nothing
Into the grave we're rushing
In the name of war

Death won't ever wait
It's in the dark waiting for the wrong step
It won't resonate
With all the "live, laugh, love" shit everywhere
One big bad mistake
Was the breath you saved for later
Spend it all tonight
'cause you won't ever see the light

In the name of love and hate, they try to separate
You see we can relate, sedate and celebrate
The name of war won't wait, they strike when they locate
To build a golden state
Tell me who counts the blood
Spilled to change the names of streets
In the name of war.
