Wild Strawberries, Gotta Go

History is everything Said the professor to the petitioner's girl She, playing with her shoe, Says I just want someone, I just want something new

I don't know what hit you Don't care where ya been I just know you gotta' go

Speed is everything Said the co-pilot to the girl with the braid She, looking round the room Says I just want someone, I just want something new

I don't know what hit you Don't care where ya been I just know you gotta' go

Timing is everything
Said the conductor to the boy half his age
He, tightening a screw,
Says I just want someone, I just want something new

I don't know what hit you Don't care where ya been I just know you gotta' go