Wilki, Crazy Summer

Wake me up when You go away Maybe i go mad, but i wanna say We have no way Live on me till tomorrow When you kiss (me) in the break of day I feel your hair all over my face I know i need you Live on me till tomorrow Let's try to run into the rain Let's recall the glare of flame Try to remind me day by day Of that crazy summer That hot crazy summer Wake me up in the break of day I wanna feel your hair on my face Want to remind you That hot crazy summer That hot crazy summer Where do we go now Come on bejbe :-) Where do we go my friend
