

Will Young, Cruel To Be Kind

V1

Mmm

babe I'm sorry but i just can't stand the pain if you're leaving baby, let me say one last thing you tell me I don't care but you know that just ain't true I got news, that I'm still in love with you Girl have'nt you been around me long enough to know ooh that I need your love and I won't let go

Ooh you don't have to be cruel to be kind you break my heart, you hurt me so kick me out because I ain't leaving
ooh you don't have to be cruel to be kind I'm feeling that you got me wrong all I want is you back where you belong

Yeah

Forget about the things we could and should have done coz it's not to late no no Ain't the best 'til yet to come what we have is a chance to start over and make it anew so trust what you feel don't hide from what's real every word I say is true Yeah Girl haven't I told you this a thousand times before ooh that I don't want you going through that door ooh you don't.....

I'm telling you that I need you I ain't leaving(x2)

ooh you don't(till fade)
