

Will Young, Lovestruck

Blue dusky waters that caught us that night
Swirling around and around like a merry go ride
You know I still get that sentimental feeling

Cool neon sky asking all kinds of questions
As the moon nods his head and the stars wink an eye
You know I still get that sentimental feeling

I'm spinning softly, I'm lovestruck
It takes my breath away
I'm so emotionally loved-up
I'm dreaming night and day
It may not be for an eternity
I swear it's real today

Smooth summer breeze sends a smile to my skin
I watch my heart wander out as the tide rushes in Still ever-burning
That sentimental feeling

I'm spinning softly, I'm lovestruck
It takes my breath away
I'm so emotionally loved-up
I'm dreaming night and day
It may not be for an eternity
I guess that's just love's way

Remember so well the memory so clear
Sweet words you whispered in my ear
The ocean set still the moment we touched
The feeling makes my body rush

I'm spinning softly, I'm lovestruck
It takes my breath away
I'm so emotionally loved-up
I'm dreaming night and day

I'm spinning softly, I'm lovestruck
It takes my breath away
I'm so emotionally loved-up
I'm dreaming night and day

It may not be for an eternity
This crazy spell has gotten hold of me
It's getting in my way

Blue dusky waters that caught us that night (Repeat to fade)
