

Willie Nelson, A Penny For Your Thoughts

Memories are haunting you
And they're making you feel blue
Darling a penny for your thoughts
Are you thinking of the past
And a love that didn't last
Darling a penny for your thoughts
And it hurts me so to see the sorrow
Written on your face
And I hope and pray that some tomorrow
I can take his place
But if someday we should part
You can say a broken heart
Offered a penny for your thoughts

( guitar )

And it hurts me so to see the sorrow
Written on your face
And I hope and pray that some tomorrow
I can take his place
But if someday we should part
You can say a broken heart
Offered a penny for your thoughts
