

Willie Nelson, Penny For Your Thoughts

Memories are haunting you and they're making you feel blue
Darling a penny for your thoughts
Are you thinking of the past and a love that didn't last
Darling a penny for your thoughts
And it hurts me so to see the sorrow written on your face
And I hope and pray that some tomorrow I can take his place
But if someday we should part you can say a broken heart
Offered a penny for your thoughts
( guitar )
And it hurts me so...
Offered a penny for your thoughts
