Willie Nelson, That's All

Some people go to school tryin' to learn how to teach Some people go to school tryin' to learn how to preach But if you preach without goin' school Brother you're ain't no preacher you're an educated fool And that's all and that's all You'd better change your way of livin' cause the good Lord say that's all

Now a feller I know it's a wiser man tryin' to save all the money that he can One day undertaker lets him down Where's he gonna spend that money under the ground And that's all and that's all... (horns)

Now a man come from monkey some people say But the Good Book brother just don't tell it that way And if you believe that monkey tale like some folks do Then I'd rather be that monkey than you And that's all and that's all...

Well my little song is ended and my little song is through And I necessarilly mean this song for you But if you don't like the way the little song goes Well it's a mighty good sign that I've been trottin' on your toes And that's all and that's all...
