

Willie Nelson, Too Sick To Pray

I've been too sick to pray, Lord
That's why we ain't talked in a while
It's been some of those days, Lord
I thought I was on my last mile

But I'm feelin Ok lord,
And I'm glad taht I called you today
Never need you more
I woulda called you before
But I've been too sick to pray

Remebr the family Lord
I know they will remember you
And all of their prayers, Lord
They talk to you just like I do

Well I reckon that's all Lord
That's all I can think to say
And thank you my friend
We'll be talkin' again
If I'm not too sick to pray
