

Windrow , Dangerous Game

Around this years of madness through insanity
a million reasons
for reach to destroy reality
the face by clown and evil with a thirsty for revenge
is dangerous game

is never gone faraway
like a broken life
murderess fire
spectral desire
faraway from this infernal life

too many years of madness through hell of steel
your eyes and full of evil with a bleeding for revenge
is dangerous game

masquerade of glory
and I feel the end
and we'll ride
again your mind
dangerous game

you live the sense of shallow between our lies and memories because you will forever nightmare full of breathe of hope
