

Windrow , Never Cry

In this world
my name is light anywhere my life run against the time and follow the sign, under the rain
for my soul there's no price I want to live this fairytale and Fight!

Fight for your life in the silent night madness, courage and sacrifice to can be free again
of your soul no trace what is the sense of this life never cry to survive

I believe in everything can see beyond
I feel your word
alive in my desire
and never freeze
the fire in your eyes

In this voice
you fly away like the wind my brain full of power change your pain in the smile, after the rain
with your hands I steel we go now you are my brothers and we'll fight!
