

Within Temptation, Entertain You

don't be mistaken, kid
your blood time's up
This ain't no game no
we're not here to entertain you.
we're not here to entertain you.

you get your fix sitting in your throne you want it all and the price it doesn't matter the world is yours and you think you know it all know it all

I know ythat smile so I should have known you sold me out for a reckless brt you burnt me of the ground
no won't back down anymore you think you won me but I wouldn't be so sure you want a battle but you're gonna lose a war go to hell i am not here to entertain you just walk away or face the showdown I won't bow I don't care about the bleeding cause our freedom's undefeated

my soul on fire
burning desire
make no mistake cause the stakes are getting higher
go to hell, I am not here to entertain you I am not here to entertain you

we're not here to entertain you.

pull your face, like you didn;t know like you cared and we'd buy your sorry storey blame tge sea blame the moon for all don't you see we're the ones whit the redemption the time keeps turning , turning around now the time is gone you're going down you think you won me , but I wouldn't be so sure

just walk away or face the showdown

in your mind you deny all the suffering you've take sides cause you lost it ain't your fight now you don't care anymore cause you lost the crown now we're not here to entrain you

just walk away or face the showdown

go to hell, I am not here to entertain you
