

Wiz Khalifa and Currensy, From The Start

I put the cheat code in
I got the money and the infinite lives, this Vice City bitch

I pray I never have to let it rip
But these the days and the times and you never know who gon' try
This that pink Polo, Ye flow, give it through the barbwire

At the top of the back yard fences to slow them motherfuckers down if they try to get in here
Ate them mushrooms and watched Scarface and now I'm pacing in my window

Back in my mind I know nobody coming
But then my third eye remind me not everybody love me
Still I slide, twisting it up
Weeding out them Chevy's, hitting switches, giving it up
Living it bruh
The vision for us was quite clear
When the smoke clears decades later we'll still be here
I don't know where them other niggas at
I ain't looking for no fools
I'm tryna remember where I parked the Benz at

We been on your prey
And we do it everyday
Jet Life, Taylor Gang
And you know what to say
You know who you are from the start

[Wiz Khalifa:]
From the beginning, niggas always started winning
Gon' remember me before I'm finished
From a place where it's hard living
Ain't no handouts
Now it's stars in the ceiling
Niggas got options when it come to cars

No more regular hoes
All I'm fucking with is superstars

From the bullshit we moving on
Rolling strong, foreign broad, need the newest car
Ain't a song unless my dog detonate the bomb
Kush got me right, hope you don't take it wrong
When I roll it up and light I need more than an eighth
I don't need nothing from you little homie, I'm straight
Jet Life, Taylor Gang

We been on your prey
And we do it everyday
Jet Life, Taylor Gang
And you know what to say
You know who you are from the start
