

Wolf Alice, How Can I Make It Ok?

A moment to change it all
A life before in so slow
Urgency takes hold
But to live in fear
Isn't to live at all

So how can i make it okay?
I just want you to be happy
So how can i make it okay?
I just want you to be happy

how can i make it okay?
Nothing else is as important
As that to me
how can i make it okay?
Nothing else is as important
As that to me

Happily see you the world
Let it in Embrace the ????
So fit
So bold
Someone like you
Should not be left unsold
