

Wolf Alice, No Hard Feelings

No hard feelings, honey
There's will be no bad blood
Losing your love has been hard enough
Life can be short
But life can be sweet
No hard feelings, honey
The next time we meet

It's not hard to remember
When it was tough to hear your name
Crying in the bathub
To Love is a Losicng Game
But there's only so much sulking
That the heart can entertain
No hard feelings, honey
The next time come my way

The threaads that kept us together
Were already wearing thin
Would we ever have tied the knot
Well how lon gis a piece of string?
And for everything else must Begin
No hard feelings , honey
And we both will take the win
