

Wolfpakk, Falling

Level one - the race has just begun
Level two - it's only up to you
Level three - you chase your destiny
Level four - come and open up the door
High and dry you're still on the rise
Is it worth paying the price

Falling – into the deep while I can hear you
Calling – speaking out my name
Falling – I don't wanna play another game

Level five – you set the scene on fire
Level six – you gonna get your kicks
Level seven – there won't be eleven
Level eight – for you it's much too late
High and dry you're still on the rise
Is it worth paying the price

Falling – into the deep while I can hear you
Calling – speaking out my name
Falling – I don't wanna play another game

Falling – into the deep while I can hear you
Calling – Speaking out my name
Falling – I don't wanna play another game
yeah, uh, yeah, uh, ah, come on

Falling – into the deep while I can hear you
Calling – speaking out my name
Falling – I don't wanna play another game

Yes I'm falling – into the deep while I can hear you
Falling - speaking out my name
Falling – I don't wanna play another game
