

Wondermints, Sting O' Luv

(N. Walusko)

The sting o' luv, how deep it was, so precious and so rare
How can this be just do for me what I can do myself?
The sting o' luv, I've had enough but not enough to share
I'll pay the price for a bit of spice like a millionaire

But I never told not a single soul this chemical reaction
Won't ever seem the same to me for now is not hereafter

The sting o' luv, au natural, l'amor raison zhan chez
Like seconds of an Aldrin, Buzz--a lunar EVA

But I never saw not a single tree and forests still don't answer
Won't ever seem the same to me for now is not hereafter

Never felt this pain before (you can be so happy you know)
Now I want to have some more

The sting o' luv under my tongue, a cinnamon affair
And suddenly you came with me till nothing else was there
The sting o' luv (it's gonna be...) a humming in my brain
The sting o' luv (it's gonna be...) a humming in my brain
The sting o' luv (it's gotta be...) a humming in my brain
