

Woodkid, In Your Likeness

Washed in thick black haze
We're not unfaling, i see
I can't fix this mad desire
And i feel your love expire

I know i am not made in your likeness
You're not made for my darkness
I know i am not made in your likeness
I do try but i am hopeless

Watch my fears unravel
Can you see the truth of me?
I don't hold the light required
For thihs endless walk on wire

I know i am not made in your likeness
You're not made for my darkness
I know i am not made in your likeness
I do try but i am hopeless

Straining fights and demerol
I've never been on time for you
I break the rules and protocols
And i just keep on missing you
Strayng nights and after all
Would you be waiting her eif you knew?
I am just alone and cynical
But i will never not need you
No, i will never not need you

I know i am not made in your likeness
You're not made for my darkness
I know i am not made in your likeness
I do try but i am hopeless
I know i am not made in your likeness
You're not made for my darkness
I know i am not made in your likeness
I do try but i am hopeless
