

Wynn Stewart, I'm Gonna Kill You

Why did you ever tell me that you loved me
When you knew that it was all the lie
I think that you deserve to and I think I got the nerve to Make this the last day of your life

I'm gonna kill you I think I'm gonna kill you
I'm gonna close your cheatin' bedroom eyes
I'm gonna kill you I think I'm gonna kill you
And bury you in a box about half your size

You told you you were just goin' to the store
Seems like a month of Sunday since you've been gone
I've been sittin' here walkin' the floor
You'd better be prepared when you walk through that door

Cause I'm gonna kill you...
I'm gonna kill you simply gonna kill you
And bury you in a box about half your size
