

Xandria, She's Nirvana

Do you dare to taste her soul
Do you like to trick control
Did you think this world was real
Realize this was the deal

She's ether fire - burns away all the dire
You will feel her touch for a while

Do you see her through the waves
Do you think it's her who saves
With a blink of radiant eye
Would you really dare to try?

She's like a fawn - just appears and then gone
What remains will be just this one song

She's eternity behind her disguise
You have almost seen a world in her eyes
But you've known that it would never be born
She's flown away like a leaf in a storm

She's bliss - she's ether - she's dark - she's nirvana
