

Xandria, Snow White

Take my life and paint it black
Until I'm sleeping
And my promise, I take back
So please stop creeping
I don't call your heart my own
Where I rest my head I'm home
You are here to please me
You know my name
I don't know yours
Stay until the curfew falls
And kiss your idol
Beneath your black-hair waterfalls
You look so bridal
You know my name
You don't know me
