

Xiu Xiu, Homonculus

oh yvonne it's true
but i promised not to say what went down
oh yvonne it's dumb
i don't know why i am turning red because i know you don't mind she'll set it up to fall and he'll set himself to wait far enough away to know far enough this wedding song's dumb oh yvonne it's like a wish when i'd heard that she'd left him it made me think just for a second

oh yvonne it's dumb
and i don't know what to say
