

XXANAXX, DISAPPEAR

I shut my eyes and threw away all keys
The bridges burned, there's no return now
I'm constantly running, the permanent hiding
Must end but I don't know, the way to escape
And I feel like I'm fading away
Do wind dried my tears and now?
I know I won't let myself down
I'm drowning in ocean of sounds
There's no place where I can be found
My dreams vanished, my thoughts have drowned

I know I won't let myself down
I'm drowning in ocean of sounds
The blurry shape of end is near
I close my eyes and disappear
I close my eyes and disappear
I close my eyes and disappear

I shut my eyes and threw away all keys
The bridges burned, there's no return now
I'm constantly running, the permanent hiding
Must end but I don't know, the way to escape
And I feel like I'm fading away
Do wind dried my tears and now?

I know I won't let myself down
I'm drowning in ocean of sounds
There's no place where I can be found
My dreams vanished, my thoughts have drowned

I know I won't let myself down
I'm drowning in ocean of sounds
The blurry shape of end is near
I close my eyes and disappear
I close my eyes and disappear
I close my eyes and disappear
