

XXANAXX, Garden

The wind is so warm
Kiss me, goodnight
Like all things behind,
Like all, like all
No one's around
I know we have found
A place to hide
That have been on our minds

Don't be afraid
It won't go away
It's our fate
So take my hand now

Don't you feel like
We're inside our hearts
Nothing more counts at all
We're just in two to be here
Take a breath and feel that
I'm soft inside
Spread your wings and fly to blaze
I may assure your grace
Where are you now?
You're in my heart

Don't be afraid
It won't go away
It's our fate
So take my hand now

There's nothing I want more
You and me in the heart of garden
Even if the rain will pour
In my arms you'll find the shelter
