

XXANAXX, Stay

So suddenly
You came into my life
So hopelessly
I'm staying up all night
It feels like the word has skipped a heartbeat
When You laying care so close to me
All things seem right
With You on my mind
I know I keep saying its too much
The minute You're gone
I feel so alone
Don't leave me please
It sounds like it's the end of two our lives, our live

So please stay
I need You so bad
Still in back of my head
There's nobody else
/2x

There's so many things that makes us different
There's so many things that makes us part of ourselves

So please stay
I need You so bad
Still in back of my head
There's nobody else
/2x
