

Years & Years, Hypnotized

such a cold
cold song of sirens
soothe me mind
in the cold
cold night ..
take it all

the fortune says:
Flowers bloom with no regrets”

surrounded me
body and soul
pull me into the glow
make me oblige
and bound me spilling gold
as the story unfolds in your touch

who can bring me into life
just one look it took my heart has been hypnotized

I know the place where it's always so perfect and blue
and the voices make believe me it's all for you

the fortune says:
Flowers bloom with no regrets”

surrounded me
body and soul
