

Years & Years, Ties

You tell me you like to burn a bridge
That you always make mistakes like this
Are you having fun?
I tell you I've got my secrets too
I go hunting for someone like you
Are you having fun?

Oh, tell me how did it feel?
Did it all get too real for you?
Everybody's screaming out your name
Are you scared?
Cause I don't think you're worth it
Ties, ties, ties, ties
Just wanna be the one you tie
Ties, ties
Just wanna be the one you tie
Ties, ties
Just wanna be the one you tie

Cause you're a dancer and I was spy
It's so beautiful to see you lie
Are you having fun?
So give it up, don't need that stress
Because you're still hungry for another test
Are you having fun?

Oh, tell me how did it feel?
Did it all get too real for you?
Everybody's screaming out your name
Are you scared?
Cause I don't think you're worth it
Ties, ties, ties, ties
I just wanna be the one you tie
Oh, ties, oh, ties, oh, ties
I just wanna be the one you tie
Oh, ties, oh, ties, oh, ties
Oh, I just wanna be the one you tie

Just another bite that takes it higher than before
Did it make you feel good? Does he run away?
Does he fill the space? It feels high and you don't care
Just another bite that takes it higher than before
Did it make you feel good? Does he run away?
Does he fill the space? It feels high and you don't care

Ties, ties, ties, ties
I just wanna be the one you tie
Oh, ties, oh, ties, oh, ties
I just wanna be the one you tie
Oh, ties, oh, ties, oh, ties
Oh, I just wanna be the one you tie
