

Yoko Ono, Goodbye, My Love

Goodbye, goodbye, goodbye, my love,
It's time to say goodbye.
Remember me for the fun we had,
Remember me for our love.
Be proud that we loved and loved so well
Don't listen to people who speak from hell.
Tears, yes, but let's not be too sad,
Let's hope it won't be all that bad.

Goodbye, goodbye, goodbye, my love,
I guess it's goodbye.

The rivers may flow and the trees may grow
But it's not the same without you.
You said life isn't so bad after all,
Keep living for us two.
The sun goes up and the moon fades away
But it's not the same without you.

Tears, yes, but don't be too sad,
Let's hope it won't be all that bad.
Goodbye, goodbye, goodbye, my love,
It's time to say goodbye.
