

You me at six, Underdog

I know something you dont,
It comes and goes, like the strength in your bones, oh
So keep your mind at rest Id never let the two of us be friends
Does it hurt?

Underdog, just look at the mess you made
Its such a shame, a shame, we had to find out this way

You must have, the must have moment in your hands
And its sad to think that, this season, Im gonna change, just not face to face
It aint broke, so dont fix it

Underdog, just look at the mess you made
Its such a shame, a shame, we had to find out this way
Revenge loves company, three makes it a crowd
So wash your mouth, sit this one out

And Im down, down. but definitely not out (Why did you?)
Yeah, why did you call me again?
But, I bet we dont make it (I bet we dont make it)
Cause I never take a rush at (my friends)
Friends in very high places
Theyre only making best of themselves
Selves are very, very selfish
Well give you a mind in the end

Underdog, just look at the mess you made
It such a shame, a shame, we had to find out this way
Revenge loves company, three makes it a crowd
So wash your mouth, sit this one out.
