

You me at six, You`ve made youe bed

I'm so glad that your lipsticks on, back seat of your best friends car, well we were onto something h
Oh no wait you will call it off and space is on the cards, who'd drink to that, i wont drink to that.
Oh Overhill will you teach me the games that you play so well and i'll drink to that, who'll drink to th
You've made your bed, so sleep in it, and never call me again.
You've made your bed, so sleep with him, but know i'm the best you'll get.
I wrote this song so you would know
Why i look up to everyone.
whoa whoa whoa
Here's a list of the things you said and i wont get over it, you want to know, you, want to know and.
The games that girls will play, makes me move away so i can train, train myself to trust again.
Oh Overhill will you teach me the games you play so well and, i'll drink to that, who'll drink to that?
You've made your bed, so sleep in it, and never call me again.
You've made your bed, so sleep with him, but know i'm the best you'll get.
I wrote this song so you would know
Why i look up to everyone.
whoa whoa whoa.
Are you on or off?
Or
I wrote this song so you would know
Why i look up to everyone.
These words will convince you to *never* love again, you want to be friends, i wont do it.
These words will convince you to never sleep with me again, you want to be friends, i can't do it.
