

Youth Alive WA, Shout Your Glory

The glory, Shout your glory (2x)

I was blind but now I see
I was lost, but now I'm found in You, Jesus
You calm the raging seas
I will tell the world it's your power that set me free

You power set me free...
Kings will come, kings will go
Nations rise, nations fall
But at the end of it all
I say Jesus Christ is Lord

My God, my God, you hold the nations in your hands and I stand in awesome wonder of your name, Jesus You're King of heaven yet you still love me
I'll Shout the glory of your name

You're the truth, You're the light
You're the only way that I could follow
You hold the stars in their place no one compares to the glory of Your name...

I'm living for Your glory
you're the only one who is worthy of my life
Every knee will bow, every tongue confess Jesus Christ Is Lord

The Glory of Your name
The glory of Your name
The glory of Your name
