

Yung Bleu, Freak Freak (feat. Kelly Rowland)

I'm so used to being in
In love with someone but I can't, can't do it again
And I don't even wanna think about your memories (Ooh, ooh)
Even if it's on my mind and it's been killing me
We ain't gotta go on dates no more but I wanna be your freak, freak
We ain't gotta be in love no more but I might just let you beat, beat
'Cause I got needs and you got needs and we

You got needs, I got needs
Got a lil' trick under my sleeve
Grab yo' throat 'til you can't breathe
Grab the pillow so you can't scream
Can you just come and express your love to me?
You a bad lil' thing we can have a lil' fling, we don't gotta be serious, yeah, yeah
Just copped, new buss down on ya wrist like woah
You ain't never had a nigga like this before
You was scared of the dick but you ain't scared no mo'
Now I'm pullin' on ya hair 'til ya hair don't grow
Pretty brown lil' thang like Kelly Ro'
I'm just hopin' we can make up and make love (Yeah)
Drink a lil' Casa' and take drugs
I probably got some other hoes, but you the one
Tell me why the fuck you wanna argue again
Girl, that shit just all in ya head
Put a nigga on block, I'll be callin' again
I'll be callin' again like ring, ring, ring
Every time I make your hotline bling
You don't even remember why you mad at me
That's why I make you say

I'm so used to being in
In love with someone but I can't, can't do it again
And I don't even wanna think about your memories (Ooh, ooh)
Even if it's on my mind and it's been killing me
We ain't gotta go on dates no more but I wanna be your freak, freak
We ain't gotta be in love no more but I might just let you beat, beat
'Cause I got needs and you got needs and we (Yeah, we)

When you say you done with that, say you done with that
I just don't believe
When you say you done with that, say you done with that
I know you got needs
You know you a freak for me
This sex make you feel like you fell in love again (In love again)
In love again
When I pull up know I got your favorite drugs again
Tell me if you came 'cause I'm gon' make you cum again
I bet you told yo' girls you wasn't gon' let me fuck again
I bet it's hard to give up, it's hard to give up, you bet not switch up on us (Us)
In the back of the pickup where I got my dick sucked and fell victim to lust (Lust)
Now you don't want to pick up, you say I'm a sick fuck, you say you just had enough
Now you say you done with me, tryna run from me, I think it's all a bluff
I know you'll be back soon enough, hmm

I'm so used to being in
In love with someone but I can't, can't do it again
And I don't even wanna think about your memories (Ooh, ooh)
Even if it's on my mind and it's been killing me
We ain't gotta go on dates no more but I wanna be your freak, freak
We ain't gotta be in love no more but I might just let you beat, beat
'Cause I got needs and you got needs and we
