

Zara Larsson, End of Time

Feel, I feel myself falling
All the blood rushed to my head, mm-mm-mm
Leaning into emotion and you make me want to sink
To oblivion

I want your love
To roll the dice
I put it all on you and I
Until the end of time
I want your love
To start a fire
And keep it burning through the night
Baby, until the end of time

They
Will say that we're insane
And in a way
Baby, we are
Mm-mm-mm
When you pull me close underneath that light
From the moment I look into your eyes
Saw what I've been searching for all of this time
This time, oh

I want your love (I want your love)
To roll the dice (To roll the dice)
I put it all on you and I
Until the end of time
I want your love (I want your love)
To start a fire (To start a fire)
And keep it burning through the night
Baby, until the end of time

Till the end, till the end, till the end of time

I want your love
To redefine
The very meaning of my life
Undo the fabric of my mind
I want your love
To start a fire
And keep it burning through the night
Until the end, the end, the end of fucking time

La-la-la-la, la-la-la-la-la
La-la-la-la, la-la-la-la-la
La-la-la-la, la-la-la-la-la
La-la-la-la, la-la-la-la-la
