

Zayn Malik, Angel (ft. Rihanna)

I need an angel
to save me from myself
holding my savior
to keep my hearth
upon shelf

do you remember
the things we said

calling for ever
for every passing moment left
I need an angel
to save me from my fate

I need an angel
to let the sky's along the way I need an angel

I need an angel
to save me from myself
holding my savior
