Zayn Malik, Calamity (Comic 1)

Nostalgia What a funny feeling I feel depleted From feelings I've been revealing

It's do or die I am not going willing But when it's time wrap in white linen I rap this

I say it for my sanity Whatever the calamity I didn this for myslef

Fuck all your fantasies You're a snake fell off the lader I prefer speaking in analogies I've had enough of all this wet And i can't trust taht you're my family

I don't know what next The brain dead that i never miss My brain lives with the cannabis Can i resist the dark abyss
