

Zero Procent, Inevitable

I

There was the time for laugh and cry
As much as hope inside us
Now all the things have changed
It's time to fight for every day

Chorus:

So go on! To the farthest way
And break through the highest waves!
Well go on! Search and find
All happiness that you want to have just for yourself

II

To manage it you have to be strong
Find understanding and believe so long
'Cause that's the way to lose your face
If you doubt in you power and lose your faith

Chorus:

III

Stop looking for the time for laugh and cry
Keep on looking for hope cause it's necessary in your life!
