

Zididada, I'm Flying

Release date: 1. March 1999

Album: Welcome to Zididada

I once heard a story told to me about the great wonders of the deep blue sea the sun was shining making a silvershield the moon and the stars reflecting in a waterfield uuu I'm flying across the sky

so high

You tell me you want me to quit but I'm a believer the dreams I dream you know I have to sustain I want to fly so high the wind will take me but the world outside will never set me free
