Zoe Girl, Here & now

Here and now

And now and now

And now and now

And now and now

And now and now

Here and now

And now and now

And now and now

And now and now

Here I am, you made it all so clear

I understand, I am just a stranger here

I leave it all behind

All that's left is gone

And I know about my mind

Straight into your arms

Here and now we will stand with one voice hand in hand

We will never back down, we will never give in

Here and now we will sing with one voice and we bring

Our life as an offering we bring you everything

Give me all the depth of the sweetest dreams which follow that I see

You are eternal, eternal life

Where could I, where could I go

But I got you in the light with everybody's side

Lord its clear when I needed day and night

So leave it all behind

To all that's left is gone

And we'll go with all our might

Straight into your arms

Here and now we will stand with one voice hand in hand

We will never back down we will never give in

Here and now we will sing with one voice and we bring

Our life as an offering we bring you everything

Lord I give my life

No matter what it takes

Cause you gave it all for me

With all of our hearts we sing

With all of our joy we bring

Everything we will bring

Our everything, everything

Here and now we will stand with one voice hand in hand

We will never back down we will never give in

Here and now we will sing with one voice and we bring

Our life as an offering we bring you everything

Here and now we will stand with one voice hand in hand

We will never back down we will never give in

Here and now we will sing with one voice and we bring

Our life as an offering we bring you everything

Here and Now

Here and Now
