

Bad Religion, Can't Spot It

I'm incurable but durable it's easy to see
Lack of restraint is a complaint of those around me
I know that others postpone
Gratification well I lack that affectation
Let's get it right, there's no end in sight
And I, can't stop, can't stop it, can't stop
Can't stop shocking but I just can't stop it
That's right
Uncontrollable, I'm inconsolable
My pleasure center is the shelter for a reptile
I hate when I gotta tolerate
Frustration see I lack the motivation
Let's set this straight, I never wait
And I, can't stop, can't stop it, can't stop
Can't stop shocking but I just can't stop it
That's right
