

Bad Religion, Give You Nothing

Hey, everybody's lookin' but they never can see
All the angst, corruption and the dishonesty
Think about the times and places you've never known
You're a man, swarm atom and yet you're alone
So I give you me
I give you nothin'
I give you me
I give you nothin'
So you've got a place that you're callin' your own
But you got a habit of carryin' the stone
Look around and ask someone if you're alive
You're a sidewalk cipher speakin' prionic jive
So I give you me
I give you nothin'
I give you me
I give you nothin'
Respectable, despicable it seems all the same
Now we realize that we have nothin' to say
If you're reserve is weak
Audacity complete
Ask yourself again
"Do I deserve much from them?"
No
Hey, everybody's lookin' but they never can see
All the angst, corruption and the dishonesty
Look around and ask someone if you're alive
You're a sidewalk cipher speakin' prionic jive
So I give you me
I give you nothin'
I said, "I give you me"
I give you nothin'
